Australian PGA Member

Golf BioDynamics
Assistant

Steve Keogh joined the Golf BioDynamics Team based in Miami, Florida, in early 2009. A qualified PGA Professional, he hails from Canberra, Australia. Steve completed his Australian Professional Golfers Traineeship in 2007 and also holds qualifications in Business Management , Level 2 Coaching (Golf) and Tourism. During his playing career in Australia, Steve managed several wins and top 10 finishes. Experience in club fitting and sales at premier facilities such as Royal Canberra Golf Club and Canberra International Golf Connection, compliment his teaching skills. It was a desire to pursue full-time teaching that led Steve to his position with Golf BioDynamics at The Jim McLean Golf School. Steve's goal is to become one of the best Golf Instructors in Australia.
